After returning from her first space mission, astronaut Sam Walker is placed under NASA's care at a high security house for rehabilitation and medical testing. However, when disturbing occurrences begin happening around the property, she fears that something extraterrestrial has followed her back to Earth

Sunday March 8 at 1:30 PM

“Now you See Me: Now you don't” (2025)

Starring: Jesse Eisenberg, Woody Harrelson & Rosamund Pike

Rated PG-13

Run time 113 minutes

The original Four Horsemen reunite with a new generation of illusionists to take on powerful diamond heiress Veronika Vanderberg, who leads a criminal empire built on money laundering and trafficking. The new and old magicians must overcome their differences to work together on their most ambitious heist yet.

Sunday March 15 at 1:30 PM

“The Senior” (2023)

Starring: Michael Chilkis, Mary Stuart Masterson & Brandon Fly

Rated: PG

Run time: 99 minutes

At 59, Mike Flynt may be too old to be on a college football field, but not too old to feel the weight of unfinished business. After nearly four decades, he returns to his alma mater to take the hit that changed everything. Bruised, doubted, and nearly broken, he pushes for one more game, not for glory, but for the teammates he lost, the family he fractured, and the ending he still believes is possible.

Sunday March 22 at 1:30 PM

“Song Sung Blue” (2025)

Starring: Hugh Jackman, Kate Hudson & Jim Belushi

Run time: 133 minutes

Based on a true story, two down-on-their-luck musicians form a joyous Neil Diamond tribute band, proving it's never too late to find love and follow your dreams.

Sunday March 29 at 1:30 PM
